NOTES

25X1

South Korea: General Pak Chong-hui has announced that the ban against political activity will be lifted on 1 January and that he and other members of the military junta will run for office in the new civilian government promised for later next year. The regime's controls will assure the election of its top leaders to the new legislature and Pak to the presidency.

Tunisia: [Some junior army officers were involved in the recently exposed plot against President Bourguiba. They apparently were motivated by dissatisfaction with their slow rate of advancement and a belief that the government had deliberately prevented the growth of a professional service. If this attitude becomes more widespread, army support of the government might be weakened at a time of steadily deteriorating economic conditions and popular anger at austerity measures.]
